THE [Numb. 872.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, January 21, 1762.

HAGUE, October 28.

BY the Memorial of the Negociations, &c. publiſhed by France, it appears, that on the 29th of July Mr. Stanley delivered to the French Miniſtry the Ultimatum, or final Propoſals, of England; the Subſtance of which is as follows:

1. France ſhall cede Canada, Cape-Breton, and the Iſlands in the Gulph of St. Lawrence, with the Right of Fiſhing on the Coaſts.

2. Whatever does not belong to Canada ſhall not be conſidered as appertaining to Louiſiana.

3. Senegal and Goree ſhall be yielded to England.

4. Dunkirk ſhall be put in the Condition it ought to be in by the Treaty of Utrecht; and on this Condition, France ſhall be reſtored to the Privilege allowed her by that Treaty of fiſhing on Part of the Banks of Newfoundland.

5. The Neutral Iſlands ſhall be equally divided.

6. Minorca ſhall be reſtored.

7. France ſhall evacuate and reſtore all her Conqueſts in Germany.

8. England ſhall reſtore Belleiſle and Guadaloupe.

9. Diſputes in the Eaſt-Indies ſhall be ſettled by the two Companies.

10. The Captures made by England before War was declared ſhall not be reſtored.

11. France ſhall not retain Oſtend and Nieuport.

12. The Ceſſation of Arms ſhall take place when the Preliminaries are ratified or the definitive Treaty ſigned.

13. Both Kings ſhall be at Liberty to aſſiſt their German Allies.

14. Priſoners ſhall be reciprocally ſet at Liberty.

The Subſtance of France's Anſwer, dated Auguſt 5, is this:

1. France will yield all Canada; but inſiſts that the Roman Catholic Religion ſhall be tolerated there, and that her Subjects ſhall have Liberty to diſpoſe of their Effects, and retire. France further inſiſts on the Right of Fiſhing in the Gulph of St. Lawrence, and demands ſome Iſland near it on which to dry her Fiſh.

2. France doth not pretend that what is not Canada is Louiſiana; but demands that the intermediate Nations between Canada and Louiſiana, and between Virginia and Louiſiana, ſhall be conſidered as independant and a Barrier between the French and Engliſh.

3. France demands Goree. However, M. de Buſſy ſhall talk about this Point.

4. M. de Buſſy ſhall alſo talk about Dunkirk, when a Port is agreed on in the Gulph of St. Lawrence for the Protection of the French Fiſhery.

5. France agrees to the Partition of the Neutral Iſlands.

6. England may keep Belleiſle, and France will keep Minorca.

7. In Conſideration of the Reſtitution of Guadaloupe, France will evacuate her Conqueſts in Germany, except thoſe made on the King of Pruſſia, which are held for the Empreſs-Queen.

8. France accepts of Guadaloupe as a Compenſation for her Ceſſions in North-America and Africa, and the Demolition of the Works at Dunkirk.

9. France agrees that the Eaſt-India Companies ſhall ſettle their Differences.

10. France inſiſts on the Reſtitution of the Captures made before the War.

11. France never intended to keep Oſtend and Nieuport.

12. The Term of ceaſing Hoſtilities will occaſion no Difference.

13. If England will withdraw her Aſſiſtance from her German Allies, France will do the ſame with regard to hers.

14. The Releaſe of the Priſoners is well.

An Anſwer to the above Ultimatum was delivered on the 1ſt of Sept. to the following Purport:

1. England inſiſts on the full and entire Ceſſion of Canada and its Appertenances; the Iſland of Cape-Breton, and the Iſlands in the Gulph of St. Lawrence; Canada comprehending, agreeable to the Line of Limits drawn by M. de Vaudreuil himſelf, when he gave up the Province by Capitulation, on one Side the Lakes Huron, Michigua, and Superior; and the ſaid Line drawn from Lake Rouge, comprehending by a winding Courſe the River Onabache to its Junction with the Ohio, and from thence ſtretching along this laſt River inclufively to it's Confluence with Miſſiſſippi. The Roman Catholic Religion ſhall be tolerated in Canada: The Inhabitants may ſell their Effects, provided the Purchaſers be Britiſh Subjects: And ſhall be allowed a Year to remove elſewhere.

2. The Limits of Louiſiana, delivered in a Note by M. de Buſſy, cannot be allowed, becauſe they comprehend vaſt Tracts of Land which Vaudreuil comprehended within Canada; and on the Side of the Carolinas they comprehend extenſive Regions, and numerous Nations, under England's Protection.

3. England ſhall keep Senegal and Goree; but if France will ſuggeſt any reaſonable Scheme for ſupplying herſelf with Negroes, it ſhall be conſidered.

4. Dunkirk ſhall be put in the Condition it ought to be in by the Treaty of Aix la Chapelle. France ſhall be reſtored to the Privilege allowed her in the Treaty of Utrecht of fiſhing on the Banks of Newfoundland, and drying Fiſh there. France, moreover, ſhall be allowed to catch Fiſh in the Gulph of St. Lawrence, and the Iſland of St. Peter's ſhall be ceded to her for drying them, provided ſhe abſtain from fiſhing on the Coaſt, and erect no Fortification, or keep any military Eſtabliſhment on the ſaid Iſland; and provided that an Engliſh Commiſſary be allowed to reſide on it, and Engliſh Men of War to viſit it from Time to Time, to ſee that the above Stipulations be obſerved.

5. No Alternative for the Neutral (ſo called) Iſlands will be accepted: But the Partition of them will ſtill be agreed to.

6. Belleiſle, Guadaloupe, and Marigalante, ſhall be reſtored.

7. Minorca ſhall be reſtored.

8. With regard to the Evacuation of the French Conqueſts in Germany, England adheres to the 7th Article of her Ultimatum, and inſiſts on the Reſtitution of Weſel, and the King of Pruſſia's Territories.

9. England will ſtill ſupport the King of Pruſſia with Vigour and good Faith.

10. The Reſtitution of the Ships taken before the War is unjuſt by the Law of Nations.

11. England truſts to France's Declaration relative to Oſtend and Nieuport.

12, 13, 14. England perſiſts in what ſhe ſaid in her Ultimatum.

To theſe Articles France replied one by one.

1. France agrees to the Ceſſion of Canada, but aſks two Years or eighteen Months for the Inhabitants of Canada to ſell their Effects, and remove. And deſires to know what England underſtands by the Appertenances of Canada.

2. France yields up Canada with the Limits aſſigned it by Vaudreuil; but inſiſts that the Indians on one Side of the Line ſhall be independent under the Protection of France; and thoſe on the other Side independent under the Protection of England. The Engliſh Traders ſhall not croſs the Line; but the Indians ſhall be at Liberty to trade with both Nations.

3. France will cede Senegal and Goree provided England will guaranty to France her Settlements at Anamabou and Akra.

4. For the Sake of Peace, France will demoliſh the new Works at Dunkirk, fill up the Baſon which is capable of receiving Ships of the Line, and deſtroy the Ropewalks. The 13th Article of the Treaty of Utrecht relative to the Fiſhery ſhall be confirmed. The Iſland of Maquelon or Michelen ſhall be added to St. Peter's; A Guard of fifty Men ſhall be kept on thoſe Iſlands to ſupport the civil Magiſtrate, no foreign Ships, even Engliſh, ſhall be allowed to touch there: But an Engliſh Commiſſary may reſide there.

5. The Neutral Iſlands may be equally divided, provided St. Lucia be Part of the Share of France.

6, 7. France agrees to.

8. France cannot evacuate Countries belonging to the Empreſs-Queen.

9. This Article of aſſiſting the German Allies requires Explanation.

10. The Demand of the Ships taken before War was declared, is ſo juſt, that France cannot depart from it.

11. When the Preliminaries are ſigned, the King of France will give it under his Hand, that he never intended to keep Oſtend and Nieuport.

13. The two Eaſt-India Companies ſhall finiſh their Negotiation at the ſame Time that the Negotiation of the two Crowns is concluded.

14. This Article can admit of no Difficulty.

France having thus refuſed to acquieſce in the Terms offered by England, Mr. Stanley was ordered to leave Paris.

Amſterdam, Oct. 17. By Letters from Surat, of the 7th of April laſt, by the Way of Turkey, we are informed, that on the 15th of January laſt, the Engliſh gained, near Patna, in the Kingdom of Bengal, a moſt complete Victory over the Son of the late Great Mogul; that they afterwards defeated the Rebel Rajah; and, after making themſelves Maſters of the Town where he reſided, put it into the Hands of the Nabob of Bengal, who as an Acknowledgment for this Ceſſion, has engaged to pay the Engliſh Eaſt India Company the Sum of Six Millions of Rupees yearly.

LONDON, October 24.

BLAKISTON, MAYOR.

At a Court of Common Council, held at Guildhall, on Thurſday the 22d of October, 1761, and in the firſt Year of the Reign of our Soverein Lord GEORGE the Third, King of Great-Britain, &c.

The Repreſentation of the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council aſſembled, to Sir Robert Ladbroke, Knt. Sir Richard Glyn, Knt. and Bart, William Beckford, Eſq; and the Hon. Thomas Harley, this City's Repreſentatives in Parliament.

WE the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council aſſembled, think it at this Time our Duty, as it is our natural and undoubted Right, to lay before You, this City's Repreſentatives in the great Council of the Nation, ſoon to be aſſembled in Parliament, what we deſire and expect from you, in diſcharge of the great Truſt and Confidence we and our Fellow Servants have repoſed in you.

That you take the earlieſt Opportunity to uſe your utmoſt Endeavours to obtain the Repeal or Amendment of the late Act, entituled, An Act for the Relief of Inſolvent Debtors, in reſpect of the Inconveniencies ariſing from the compulſive Clauſe, by which a Door has been opened to the greateſt Frauds and Perjuries; and, if continued, muſt become the Deſtruction of all private Credit, ſo eſſential to the Support of a Trading People.

That you concur in and promote all neceſſary Meaſures for eſtabliſhing good Œconomy in the Diſtribution of the national Treaſure; and for that Purpoſe that you endeavour to have a Committee appointed, in order to enquire into any Abuſes, which may have ariſen in the Application of it, and to prevent any Frauds or illicit Practices in the Management thereof.

That you entertain juſt Sentiments of the Importance of the Conqueſts made this War by the Britiſh Arms, at the Expence of ſo much Blood and Treasure; and that you will, to the utmost of your Power and Abilities, oppose all Attempts for giving up such Places, as may tend to lessen our present Security, or by restoring the naval Power of France, render us subject to fresh Hostilities from that natural Enemy; particularly that the sole and exclusive Right of our Acquisitions in North-America, and the Fisheries, be preserved to us.

As the present happy Extinction of Parties, the Harmony and Unanimity of all his Majesty's Subjects, their Zeal and Affection to their native King, and the great Increase of Commerce, are most convincing Proofs to us of this Nation's Ability, still to carry on, and vigorously prosecute, the present just and necessary War—it is our Desire, that you concur in giving his Majesty such Supplies, as shall enable him to pursue all those Measures, which may promote the true Interest of his Kingdoms, and place him above the Menaces of any Power, that may pretend to give Laws, or prescribe Limits, to the Policy and Interests of this Nation. But it is apparent, that our Enemies flatter themselves with the Hopes of exhausting our Strength by the immense Expence, in which we are at present engaged—we therefore require you, in the further Prosecution of this War, to support such Measures, as may frustrate those Expectations; yet to act with the utmost Vigour, in the Reduction of their remaining Colonies, so as to obtain a safe and honourable Peace.

Copy of the THANKS to the Right Honourable WILLIAM PITT from the Court of Common-Council, October 22, 1761.

" RESOLVED,

" That the Thanks of this Court be given to " the Right Hon. William Pitt, for the many " great and eminent Services rendered this Nation " during the Time he so ably filled the high and " important Office of one of his Majesty's Princi " pal Secretaries of State, and to perpetuate their " grateful Sense of his Merits, who by the Vigour " of his Mind had not only roused the ancient " Spirit of this Nation, from the pusillanimous " State, to which it had been reduced; but, by " his Integrity and Steadiness uniting us at Home, " had carried its Reputation in Arms and Com- " merce to a Height unknown before, by our " Trade accompanying our Conquests in every " Quarter of the Globe.

" Therefore the City of London, ever stedfast " in their Loyalty to their King, and attentive to " the Honour and Prosperity of their Country, " cannot but lament the national Loss of so able, " so faithful, a Minister, at this critical Con- " juncture."

LONDON, November 3.

The following Extract of the Historical Memorial of the Negociation of Peace between England and France, published by Authority in Paris, however it may be relished in some foreign Countries, shews the Spirit and Dignity with which Mr. Pitt eluded the Snare laid for his Country.

M. BUSSY's NOTE to Mr. PITT.

Since the Memorial of the Propositions from France was formed, and at the Instant that the Courier was ready to set out for London, the King received the Consent of the Empress Queen to a separate Peace with England, but upon two Conditions:

1. To keep Possession of the Countries belonging to the King of Prussia.

2. That it shall be stipulated, that the King of Great Britain, neither in his Capacity of King or Elector, shall afford any Succour, either in Troops, or of any Kind whatever, to the King of Prussia: And that his Britannic Majesty will undertake that the Hanoverian, Hessian, Brunswickian, and the other Auxiliaries in Alliance with Hanover, shall join the Forces of the King of Prussia, in like Manner as France shall engage, on her Part, not to yield Succour of any Kind to the Empress Queen, nor her Allies.

Both these Conditions appear so natural and equitable in themselves, that his Majesty could not do otherwise than acquiesce in them; and he hopes that the King of Great Britain will be ready to adopt them.

Mr. PITT's Letter, in Answer to the foregoing, 24th July 1761.

SIR,

" Having explained myself, in our Conference Yesterday, with respect to certain Engagements of France with Spain, relative to the Disputes of the latter Crown with Great Britain, of which your Court never informed us, but at the very Instant of making, as she has done, her first Propositions for the separate Peace of the two Crowns; and as you have desired, for the sake of greater Punctuality, to take a Note of what has passed between us upon so weighty a Subject, I here repeat, Sir, by his Majesty's Order, the same Declaration, Word for Word, which I made to you Yesterday, and again anticipate you, with respect to the most sincere Sentiments of Friendship and real Regard on the Part of his Majesty towards the Catholic King, in every Particular consistent with Reason and Justice. It is my Duty to declare further to you in plain Terms in the Name of his Majesty, that he will not suffer the Disputes with Spain to be blended, in any Manner whatever, in the Negociation of Peace between the two Crowns; to which I must add, that it will be considered as an Affront to his Majesty's Dignity, and as a Thing incompatible with the Sincerity of the Negociations, to make further mention of such a Circumstance.

" Moreover it is expected that France will not, at any Time, presume a Right of intermeddling in such Disputes between Great Britain and Spain.

" These Considerations so just and indispensible, have determined his Majesty to order me to return you the Memorial which occasions this, as wholly inadmissible.

" I likewise return you, Sir, as totally inadmissible, the Memorial relative to the King of Prussia, as implying an Attempt upon the Honour of Great Britain, and the Fidelity with which his Majesty will always fulfil his Engagements with his Allies.

" I have the Honour to be, &c."

(Signed) PITT.

The Postmasters General have appointed Mr. Foxcraft, Secretary to Governor Fauquier, of Williamsburg, Joint Postmaster General of America with Benjamin Franklin, Esq; in the Room of William Hunter, Esq; deceased.

BOSTON, December 14.

Yesterday arrived here Captain Church, in 13 Days from Louisbourg, and informs, that his Excellency Brigadier General Whitmore, Governor of that Place, and Colonel of the 22d Regiment of Foot, embarked on board his Vessel, in order to proceed hither, but that by contrary Winds they were obliged to put into Plymouth last Friday, when, between 11 and 12 o'Clock at Night, his Excellency occasionally going out upon Deck he by some Accident fell overboard, and was unfortunately drowned, no Body being upon Deck, to give him any Assistance; his Body was taken up the next Morning, near the Gurnet, and is brought up by Captain Church, in order for a decent Interment: The Jury of Inquest, who sat upon his Excellency's Body Yesterday, brought in their Verdict, Accidental Death.

PORTSMOUTH, New-Hampshire, December 11.

Captain Samuel Frost arrived here last Monday in 26 Days from Martinico, in a Flag of Truce, having been there and Redeemed three Hostages, given for three several Vessels belonging to this Port, taken and ransomed.

It is very disagreeable to Captain Frost to think there should be Occasion for the following Intelligence; but at the earnest Sollicitation of the Concerned, and upon his Promise to make the same public on his Arrival, as well as from a Motive that the Injured should receive some Recompense, though not adequate to their Sufferings, the following List of Hostages left by him at Martinico the 5th of November is published; the original Account is in French, signed by the Governor of Martinico.

Schooner Dispatch, of Maryland, Job Warren, Hostage, taken and ransomed for 30,000 Livres.

Snow Peggy, of Maryland, John Tardy, Mate and Hostage, ransomed for 12,000 Livres.

Sloop Fanny, of Norfolk, in Virginia, Thomas Simpson, Mate and Hostage, ransomed for 7,500 Livres.

Schooner Sally, of Virginia, John Brigs, jun. Mate and Hostage, ransomed for 4,000 Livres.

Sloop Neptune, of Boston, John Taber, Captain and Hostage, dead, ransomed for 500 Dollars.

Sloop May-Flower, of Nantasket, John Jones and Daniel Huzzy, Hostages, ransomed for 2000 Dollars. Said Huzzy has been put on board an English Sloop taken after the Ransom, and since retaken; Jones is dead.

Brig Ranger, of Salem, Joseph James, Hostage, ransomed for 2300 Dollars.

Brig Three Friends, of North-Carolina, Peter Clear, Mate and Hostage, ransomed for 800 Dollars.

Sloop——of Plymouth, or Falmouth, Samuel Attwood, Hostage, ransomed for 30,000 Livres.

Schooner Revenge, of Marblehead, Martin Waker, Mate and Hostage, dead, ransomed for 12,000 Livres.

Schooner Dolphin, of Providence, Gideon Whipper, Hostage, ransomed for 3000 Livres.

Snow Hopson, of Halifax, Richard Frayne, Mate and Hostage, ransomed for 20,000 Dollars.

Sloop Careful, of Boston, John Beney, Mate and Hostage, ransomed for 1200 Dollars.

Capt. Frost begs Leave, in Behalf of the Hostages, to remonstrate against the Cruelty of keeping so many innocent Men in the greatest Distress; he forbears to accuse any particular Person of Blame; but that they should be relieved, Humanity, Generosity and Gratitude, call loudly on the Owners or Masters of such Vessels as are ransomed, to spend their Fortunes, and even risque their Lives, rather than let them remain in such a Condition as may be better conceived than expressed, in the present Circumstances of Affairs in Martinico. It would only aggravate the Friends of these Hostages for him to particularize their Distress, but he does hereby discharge not only his Duty, but his Promise, to let it be publickly known, that those concerned may hasten to their Relief, or, in a few Months (and he believes before now with some) the Lives of these unhappy Men will be sacrificed to the insatiable Avarice and inhuman Principles of contracted Spirits.

PHILADELPHIA, January 7.

Extract of a Letter from Barbados, dated December 3, 1761.

" Admiral Rodney arrived here the 22d of November from England. He sailed with 4 Sail of the Line, 3 Bombs, and 3 Tenders; of which one Sail of the Line, one Bomb, and one Tender are not come in.——The Belleisle Fleet not yet arrived, but expected every Moment.

" We are daily in Expectation of the Troops from New-York, and some from England, to join them here, as this Island is to be the Rendezvous; from whence they will proceed against Martinico.——The French are well prepared at that Island; and, I think, less than 15,000 Men will not reduce it."

Another Letter, of a prior Date, mentions the Arrival of Admiral Rodney; and that 4 Line of Battle Ships, 3 Bombs, and a Number of Transports, with 4000 Men on board, were hourly looked for from Belleisle.

Other Letters from Barbados, mention Commodore Douglas's being off of Martinico, with a Number of Capital Ships; and that others, as they came in, were sent to join him.

The following is said to be a true LIST of his Majesty's Ships that were to rendezvous at Barbados, for the Attack of Martinico, viz. GUNS.

Marlborough,	74	Rear Adm. Rodney;	Capt. Holwell.
Dublin,	74	Commo. Douglas;	Capt. Gascoigne.

Belliquieux,	64	Captain Edwards.
Bienfaisant,	64	Captain Balfour.
Modeste,	64	Captain Henkerson.
Alcide,	64	Captain Walsingham.
Intrepide,	60	Captain ———
Raisonable,	64	Captain Shuldham.
Culloden,	74	Captain Barker.
Temple,	70	Captain O'Bryan.
Stirling Castle,	64	Captain Everitt.
Dragon,	74	Captain Harvey.
Lion,	64	Captain Lecras.
Devonshire,	66	Captain Darby.
Montague,	60	Captain Williamson.
Nottingham,	60	Captain Marshall.
Sutherland,	54	Captain Legge.
Falkland,	50	Captain Drake.
Norwich,	50	Captain M'Cleverty.
Woolwich,	50	Captain Bayne.
23 Ships of the Line.	1492	Guns.

FRIGATES.

Crescent,	36 Guns,	Captain Collingwood.
Lizard,	36	Captain Baynes.
Echo,	36	Captain Brisband.
Repulse,	30	Captain Allen.
Levant,	28	Captain Laforey.
Rose,	20	Captain Nott.
Amazon,	20	Captain Keith.
Greyhound,	20	Captain Francis.
Eight Frigates.	226	Guns.

And we learn that the Number of His Majesty's Troops, designed for the Reduction of Martinico, is also as follows, viz.

From North-America,	8000	Men.
Belleisle,	4000
Dominico,	1200
Guadaloupe,	500
Antigua,	300
	14,000
Marines,	2000
Raised in Barbados,	500	And 600 Negroes.
	16,500

By Captain Boone, from St. Christophers, we have the following Extract from the Britannia Privateer, Captain M'Pherson, of this Port, dated November 20, 1761.

" Yesterday we arrived here with a Letter of Marque Sloop of six Guns, loaded with Sugar, Coffee and Cotton, from Martinico, bound to Statia: This makes the fifth Prize we have taken in these Seas, three of which are French Privateers of 10 Guns each, and the other two Letters of Marque."

And Captain Boone informs us, that he saw an Article in the Antigua Papers, by which the Assembly of that Island had voted Captain M'Pherson Fifty Guineas to buy a Sword, as a Mark of their Gratitude to him, for his Services, in taking the Enemy's Privateers.

And that he read in the St. Christophers Papers that the Troops from England, for the Siege of Martinico, were arrived at Barbados.

ANNAPOLIS, January 21.

A Gentleman living on Rappahannock in Virginia writes to his Friend here, That " two Ships are " arrived there from London, after short Passages, " which bring an Account that Mr. PITT had " resum'd his Office, and that all Thoughts of a " Spanish War were laid aside.

We should have sooner oblig'd the Gentlemen who sent the following; but it did not come to Hand till since the Printing our last Gazette.

Alexandria, December 1, 1761.

Yesterday being the Feast of ST. ANDREW, was held, for the first Time, the Election of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Council of this City, when Mr. WILLIAM RAMSAY, a Gentleman of remarkable Probity and Benevolence, was unanimously voted to the Chair; an Honour doubly due him, as well for his virtuous Deserts, as for being first Projector and Founder of this promising City. The Office of Recorder was justly conferred on Mr. JAMES LAWRIE, M. D. who made a very elegant extempore Speech on the Duties of the Magistracy, administered the usual Oath with becoming Solemnity, and invested the Lord Mayor with a Gold Chain and Medal, struck on the Occasion. Upon one Side of which is represented the present infant State of Alexandria, and it's commodious Harbour, with these Words in the Legend, ALEXANDRIA, TRANSLATA, & RENATA, AUSPICE DEO, and in the Exergue, CONDITA REG°. GEO. IId. AN. DOM. 1749. The Reverse has this Inscription, DIGMO. DOMNO. GULIELMO RAMSAY ROMULO ALEXANDRIÆ URBISQ; PATRI. CONSULI PRIMO. BENE MERENTI—AN. DOM. 1761. The Election being ended, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, preceded by the Officers of State, Sword and Mace Bearers, &c. and accompanied by many Gentlemen of the Town and Country, made a grand Proceſſion to different Quarters of the City, with Drums, Trumpets, a Band of Muſic, and Colours flying. The Company wore Blue Saſhes with Croſſes, in Compliment to the Day, and upon the Whole made a ſplendid Appearance. Crouds of Spectators followed, many on Horſe Back, and ſeveral were got on Tops of Houſes. Loud Acclamations reſounded from every Mouth, and a general Joy ſparkled in every Face. The Shipping in the Harbour diſplayed their Flags and Streamers, and continued firing Guns the whole Afternoon.

A very elegant Entertainment was prepared at the Coffee-Houſe, where the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, dined. In the Evening a Ball was given by the Scotch Gentlemen, at which a numerous and brilliant Company of Ladies danced. The Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonſtrations of Joy.

Baltimore, July 1761.

RELIGION, the crowning Excellence of intelligent Nature, claims the Approbation and cloſe Attention of every reaſonable Being, who expects future Bliſs. We are bound from Principles of Gratitude and Intereſt to promote the Honour and Worſhip of the ſupreme Mind, as neceſſary to our own Proſperity, the Good of Society, and future Happineſs of Man. Animated by theſe intereſting Motives, we, of the Preſbyterian Perſuaſion in this Town, deſire, not from Party Views, but from real Principle, to purchaſe a Lot of Ground to erect a decent Church for Divine Service, in which we may worſhip GOD according to our Conſciences. Upon Enquiry we find ourſelves as yet inſufficient to raiſe ſuch a Sum as is neceſſary to accompliſh ſuch an important Deſign, beg Leave therefore to ſollicit the Generoſity of our Fellow-Chriſtians to aſſiſt and encourage us in compleating a ſmall Lottery, at a Time when the Benevolence of our Countrymen is ſo well tried in this Way. We hope our Claim to the public Attention is equal to any that has ſollicited their Notice, and humbly expect that we ſhall meet with general Encouragement.
